Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

This Is Indeed Her Party Coat

Her Portrait.

Deep tan broadcloth stitched twice around the bottom and set on a top that is corded in a graceful line gives this child's coat. The semicircular pockets are neat. Just what gives the garment its splendid finish is the five huge buttons and roll collar of seal.

At a meeting of the Hughes Alliance here Monday night four delegates were selected to attend a meeting of the state alliance in Portland Friday night. The delegates are T. Macken, D. M. Hampton, H. H. Sickafosse and D. L. Kept.

Monmouth children did themselves proud at the state fair in Salem, three of their winning first in the state in their projects. John Stump won first prize in the pig-raising contest for best Berkshire, $10, first for best Berkshire sow and litter, two weeks and expenses paid at O. A. C. In the pig judging contest he picked 15 winners out of 16, winning first place, and a prize of a $50 pure bred pig. In all he made a fine showing and came away with $100 in prizes. Hugh Bell won first prize for Duroc pigs, boys class, and got the $10 given by the Duroc association. Beth Ostrom won first prize in canning in the state and is the first blue ribbon girl! Monmouth has ever produced; Beth is only 14 years old and had never competed for a prize before. This carries with it two weeks with all expenses at the O. A. C. summer school.

Mrs. B. R. Seruggs, 725 S. Thirteenth St., Salem, says: "I know from personal experience that Doan's Kidney Pills are a medicine of merit and I don't hesitate to recommend them to anyone I hear complaining of backache or kidney trouble. I had a dull pain through my kidneys. Other symptoms of kidney disorder convinced me that my kidneys were the cause of backache. I took two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they stopped that misery in my back and put my kidneys in good condition."
